Major Sylvester Talks of Police Arrangements for Encampment-Ample Protection to Be Afforded-Additional Subscriptions Received at Headquarters-Notes of Interest.

The Sixth Army Corps reunion committee held its meeting last night at the headquarters of the G. A. R. on component committee and a large number et resident members were present. The business of the meeting was con fined to the appointment of an executive committee and to the preparation of a circular which will furnish informotion to non-resident members of the Provision was made for printing the roster of the corps from its organization, and these will also be distributed.

One of the chief features of inter est to the Sixth Corps during encampment week will be the defication of the menument to Gen. H. G. Wright at Pay Inspector Peterson Arlington, at which coremony the com mittee will assist.

All members of the Sixth Corps in the city are requested to attend the meetings of the reunion committee the dates of which will be announce later through the medium of the daily

Mr. H. M. Gillman, chairman, presided at the meeting last night and the other officers of the committee present were Dr. Charles V. Petteys, vice chair man; Mr. D. W. Greene, secretary, and Mr. J. B. Simmons, treasurer,

Police Arrangements.

The police arrangements for the encampment will be the most complete that have ever marked a gathering in this city. Not that any special influx of crooks is expected, but because of the attention the veterans will require from the guardians of the peace because of their advancing years and the unusual tax they will place upon them-

Major Sylvester called at encampment headquarters yesterday and had a long talk with Secretary Bulkley. He stated that while there was but $8,000 appropriated for the increased police service during the encampment of ten years ago he now had $11,600 at his disposal, ago he now had $11,600 at his disposal, and that he proposed to add to the num-ber of policemen during encampment week by swearing in about 600 men. The usual detail of detectives will also be brought from all of the prominent cities in this part of the country. Major Sylvester expressed the greatest inter-est in the encampment and said that his interest would take a practical form shortly.

Medical Committee Meeting.

The following additional subscriptions have been reported: E. E. Rapley for the National Publishing Company, $25; M. Breshear, $5; Miller, Clagett & Co., $5; Soule & Co., $5; and W. A. Engel, proprietor of the Hotel Engel, $50 addi-Mr. J. R. Bartlett, an aide-de-camp on
